Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

SEPTEMBER 8, 1987-by VIRGINIA ARRAL

CONSTITUTION WEEK PROCLAMATION SEPTEMBER 17-23, 1987

Selectmen last Tuesday declared the week of September 17-23 as marking the 200th anniversary of the drafting of the Constitution of the United States of America by the Constitutional Convention by issuing a Proclamation.

Declaring it fitting and proper to accord official recognition to this memorable anniversary and to the patriotic exercises that will commemorate the occasion, Public Law #915 guarantees the issuing of a proclamation each year by the President of the United States of America designating September 17 through September 23 as Constitution Week. The Selectmen urge all our citizens to pay special attention during that week to our Federal Constitution and the advantage of American citizenship.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET with Theresa Tavares of 3 Martin Avenue, who issued a complaint on the placing of a no parking yellow line marking in front of her home.

The recently cleaned Whaleman's Statue memorial on our cover stands on the front lawn of the New Bedford Public Library, as always, but it hasn't looked quite this good since the period when it was brand new. Next time you are in the center walk by and see the statue as it was meant to be seen in the mellow, burnished rich bronze of its youth. It is a nice job. DCJ PHOTO

Mrs. Tavares asked specifically, "I would like to know the procedure followed to place no parking signs when there is no valid reason to do so. I was told that a neighbor, Mr. Joseph Bellmore, called Highway Surveyor Manuel R. Nunes to ask for the no parking sign and received it without notification of any kind to the neighbors."

Mrs. Tavares said there is no reason why Mr. Bellmore can't get out of his driveway when there are cars parked across the street from his driveway. She noted there are very few times when there are cars on the street in front of her house; perhaps five times in 20 years on a regular basis and only occasionally now when she has extra company. "Those yellow lines are an eyesore in front of my house," she protested.

Selectman Frank M. Suzan asked Mrs. Tavares if this no parking area caused her any inconvenience? She said, "Yes". He asked her if is it a daily inconvenience. She replied, "No". Selectman Suzan said Mr. Nunes is an elected official and handles such situations. "We don't have control, only you, the voter has control."

Selectman William F. Hubbard agreed to view the area in question before the Board takes any action.

RECEIVED MINUTES of the Old Rochester Regional High School Advisory Committee meeting of August 20. Selectman William Hubbard has been appointed to the capital improvements sub-committee. He said there are a lot of things that need to be checked, especially a lot of attention to capital improvements. The next meeting is at 2:30 p.m., September 14th, at the high school, and is open to the public.

As summer fades into mid September, we look back on one of the pleasures of that short season. This was the scene at Nauset Beach on the National Seashore just a few short weeks ago as sunners enjoyed the great sweep of that beach below the cliffs. Happily, in any season this is a place to enjoy the view and the happy, healthy exercise of a magnificent beach walk. DCJ photos as chairman. Marilyn Whalley of Rochester was named secretary. It was noted the Capital Expenditure Committee was formed to prepare long-range and short-range capital recommendations for the ORR School District. Other members on the capital expenditure committee are Patricia Ryan, Richard Gamache and Dr. Samuel McFadden.

This capital expenditure committee would make a priorities list to be investigated from the previous Capital Expenditure Committee. Reports would be made in late October.

A Budget Process Committee was formed, including Ted Pratt, chairman, and Joan Walsh, School Superintendent. Its function would be to coordinate the budget process between the towns and the regional schools and to put the budgetary process on a calendar that could be duplicated by each participating town.

A committee, comprised of Marilyn Whalley, Karen Jacobsen and Mr. Pratt, was appointed to investigate the hiring of a professional grant writer. Superintendent Walsh said that over $160,000 has been added to programs regionally via grant awards in the last four years. She suggested that the hiring of a grant writer would be of great benefit to both the towns and the administration of the schools, as a large portion of the administration's time is spent in the procurement of grants. Ted Pratt explained the incentive aid program designed and administered by the state of Massachusetts from which grant money can be obtained.

At that Advisory meeting Selectman Hubbard was also named as vice-chairman, with Ted Pratt of Marion

Other sub-committees suggested for future discussion were Communications and Public Relations. Marilyn Whalley suggested that a tri-town newsletter be instituted by the region to provide more accurate and positive information to citizens of the three towns concerning the District. She also suggested the Advisory Committee encourage more participation by parents in the regional schools. It was suggested that improved communications be linked with the budget process.

Superintendent Walsh noted that projected student and budgetary growth for the five years following 1981 would be compared with the 1981 actual facts. Ted Pratt suggested that the Advisory Committee utilize the information and projections provided by the subcommittee to lobby on behalf of the ORR District at local levels.

On the subject of public relations, Assistant Superintendent Andrew J. Santos suggested the committee be aware when planning: 1) Present public relations practices; 2) Communications; kinds, timing and discussions; 3) Public relations as they relate to the general public. Constitution Day TOMORROW

MATTAPOISETT CELEBRATION

This week on Thursday, September 17th, we celebrate the Bicentennial birthday of our United States Constitution. All are welcome at Old Rochester Regional High School for the 1:00 p.m. ceremony. There will be short speeches and a ceremonial planting of the "Constitution Oak" we hope will grow and prosper, along with the constitution, well into the next century. A bronze plaque has been cast for planting near the tree to commemorate the occasion and to record for all time that the residents "back in '87" really cared.

MARION CELEBRATION

The Marion Bicentennial Constitution Committee wishes to encourage all citizens to participate in celebrating on September 16 "a patriotic salute". All Americans are invited to participate in the national Pledge of Allegiance to our Flag at 1:00 p.m. (EDT), via a live broadcast from Washington, D.C. Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, Ret., Chairman of the Commission on the Bicentennial of the Constitution, will lead the nation in a reading of the Preamble to the Constitution.

On this day also teachers will develop special programs and activities to help young people celebrate the rights and responsibili-

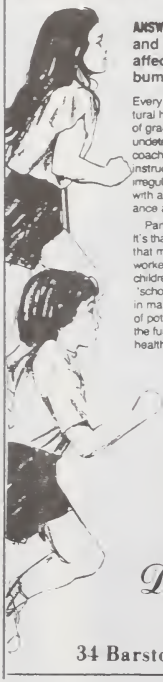
QUESTION:

WHY SHOULD CHILDREN HAVE CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL MANIPULATION?



ANSWER: Because growth and development can be affected by minor bumps, jars and falls.

Every year, thousands of structural health problems in students of grade and high school level go undetected even though teachers, coaches and physical education instructors watch for health irregularities which might interfere with a child's physical performance and learning ability.

Part of their jobs? Not really. It's that extra sense of dedication that makes these already overworked public servants give children that extra attention. The "school guardian" is responsible in many cases for the detection of potential health problems and the funneling of children to proper health authorities.

What most people don't know is that most health problems are far too complex for the teacher to note. And with a busy schedule, the educator can't be expected to have the time to screen problems that are beyond his or her scope of training, no matter how conscientious the teacher may be. The result: many children have health problems that retard their ability to learn or engage in sports effectively.

Here's what you can do:

- Parents should be urged to take more responsibility for their children's health.
- Parents and teachers should be alert to such things as changes in energy level, postural changes, moodiness, listlessness or any unusual signs that signal a problem that will impede learning. One of the observable signs is lack of interest in school activities.
- The structural balance of the child's body should be considered. The school teacher will no doubt note the child's posture, but that does not always indicate the structural integrity of the body. Comprehensive chiropractic examinations, including examinations of the spine, pelvis, neck and limbs should be recommended to avoid developmental problems.
- Incorporate posture awareness programs into your class projects. Write for suggestions and materials.

CONSTITUTION DAY - SEPTEMBER 17, 1987

Constitution Day, September 17 will be a special day in America. On this date 200 years ago the Constitution was approved by all 12 state delegations, and was signed by 39 of the 42 remaining delegates. The Convention formally adjourned.

Marion will commemorate the actual signing by the "Bicentennial Bell Ringing". At 4:00 p.m. church bells and the bell at Tabor Academy will be tolled for 200 strokes, or about 4 minutes. This pealing of bells will take place all across America.

It is asked that everyone stop in his or her activity during the bell ringing and observe "Seconds of Silence". This period of about 4 minutes allows time for reflection on the significance of the Constitution. "Everything in the community should stop."

The Sippican School has special plans for a luncheon that day which will include the senior citizens.

DAR

The Daughters of the American Revolution remind us that the week of September 17 - 23 marks the two hundredth anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution. Marion Selectmen's Meeting

SEPTEMBER 8, 1987
submitted by Eunice Manduca

Police Chief Brian Scott reported to the Marion Board of Selectmen that Officer Martin has resigned, and candidates for that position and for Special Police officers are being processed.

A memo was received from Smith & Wesson about possible malfunction of service revolvers. Chief Scott is investigating possible alternatives. The Chief recommends that the town not accept donation of a used van available for police work because it needs too much work.

William Claflin has found that the installation of a proposed Teletype and printer would cost approximately $2500. and will require minimum changes in the present system. New cruisers are covered by maintenance contract with Suddard Ford in Wareham.

in apprehension of 2 males for breaking and entering. Chief Scott stressed that all suspicious activities should be reported to the department because they need eyes and ears in the community in order to stop the rash of house breaks which are occurring more frequently in town.

Joseph Napoli questioned why the telephone company is moving a pole to in front of his property. Selectmen advise that a new street layout shows present pole location will be in the roadway. They will check with the phone company for particulars.

Finance Committee Charles Paulsen, James Fallon and Marshall Severance agree that repairs to the large digger of the D.P.W. at a cost of $7000. is more economically feasible than the purchase of a new unit. Money will be used from the present DPW budget.

The Finance Committee sees a need for a Special Town Meeting in November for several articles.

James Fallon will reactivate the Administrative Review Committee. There are no job descriptions available for any positions in the Town House.

It was announced that the League of Women Voters is sponsoring a meeting on September 21 at ORR.

A notice was received from Plymouth County Commissioners on requirements for capping the regional landfill. Ray Pickles stated that the cost could be $2½ million. SEMASS is checking possibility of state funds for the purpose to be repaid with money earned when SEMASS is in operation.

The Board voted to appoint Claire Russell as member-at-large to the ORR Advisory Committee.

A resident living in a barn on her property was advised to make application for a non-conforming use to the Zoning Board of Appeals for permit to occupy.

BOARD OF HEALTH

Ted Brainard requests two variances on the required set-back for sewage disposal system on a lot on Delano Road and the Weweantic River. The Board was impressed with the professional presentation and vast amount of data done on the project but feels that this is an exceptional sensitive location and extensive areas of the river are already closed to shellfishing because of high coliform readings. The Board will take the matter under advisement and make its decision by September 15th.

Charles Calhoun requests variances for a replacement septic system on a lot 25 feet by 158 feet at an existing home. Plans will be revised to show wetlands area. A hearing will be scheduled for September 22nd.

Rochester Regional School District: a presentation and discussion of the history of our local regionalization and what it means to have a regional high school; the reasons behind regionalization and the people and towns involved; many new residents may not know that local students had to attend several different high schools. On a lighter note there will be people to recount, from personal experience, what it was like to attend and teach at ORR's very beginning.

Among the speakers will be Barbara Macy, member of the planning committee charged with exploring the feasibility of forming a regional school district; David Hagen, previous principal of ORR and, even further back, the clerk of the original building committee; Robert Silvia, representing the custodians; and Ted Pratt, chairman of the first ORR financial advisory committee and now chairman of the current advisory committee and also a Marion Selectman. Questions will be encouraged and answers given.

This Celebration is the first in the Know Your Schools series of meetings being organized by the education committee of the local League of Women Voters.

Mattapoisett Growth Management

by VIRGINIA ARRAL

Selectmen Chairman John N. DeCosta attended the September 3rd meeting of the Growth Management Study Committee and expressed his thanks to the 22 members and residents present for their efforts on behalf of the town. He stressed the importance of Harbormaster Steven Mach's efforts to manage the harbor and waterfront under the proposed constraints of Chapter 91 and urged the Growth Committee to work closely with the harbormaster.

Chairman Peter Kortright distributed town zoning maps prepared through the courtesy of Town Clerk Lois Ennis to aid the members in making suggestions on the town's development.

The next meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, September 17th, at Village Court. Sub-committees will form discussion groups, then rejoin to a full committee. The public is welcome to attend.

Chairman Kortright said the meetings every two weeks have been open and candid expressions of those attending. The six separate sub-committees on specific areas of interest will be producing more substantive work in the next few weeks. Again, he added, any townspeople interested in a specific group is invited to attend. The sub-committees are the Historic District, Community and Housing, Public Facilities, Open Space, Waterfront/Harbor and Industrial/Commercial Development.

Have You Some Thoughts?

After bi-weekly meetings and individual research throughout the summer, the Growth Management Committee has formed subcommittees for some of the most difficult planning issues. Each committee is developing a statement of objectives for the fall period. Those available at press time are:

Harbor and Waterfront Management: Develop a comprehensive Harbor Plan focusing on funding sources to achieve the plan. Also address the quality of life on roads and facilities around the harbor.

Open Space and Land Preservation: Map aquifers, wetlands, parks, natural resources as well as town-owned and other protected areas. Identify areas and features which are at risk and in need of protection.

Commercial and Industrial Development: Identify what the town needs in commercial/industrial base and assess how such needs would impact the town financially. Initiate a survey to determine if there is a need to modify current by-laws.

Public Facilities and Environmental Quality: Initial analysis will focus on sewer, water, and unaccepted roads. Inventory current services and compare with projected requirements, identifying costs of maintenance and expansion. Urgent situations will be identified with recommendations for correction.

The next Growth Management meeting is September 17th at Village Court at 7:30 p.m. Interested townspeople are urged to participate.

FOUR STUDENTS RECEIVE SPOTLIGHT AWARDS

Four Old Colony students were recent recipients of Awards from Southeastern Massachusetts University's Spotlight Program. The "Participation With Distinction" Awards were presented to Christopher Franks, Michael Gajewski, Kimberly Kallio, and Tracy Albino.

The Spotlight Program is an after school Enrichment Program for gifted and talented students. The program functions to bridge the gap between secondary school and college. All four Old Colony students intend to pursue a college education upon graduation in June.

Michael Gajewski is a Mattapoisett resident.

Mattapoisett Board of Appeals

DECISIONS - reported by Virginia Arral

Four decisions announced by the Mattapoisett Board of Appeals include three special permits granted and the fourth request for a variance not considered necessary by the Board.

An amended application, supported by a plot plan and a construction plan, previously denied on July 17 to Alan Pratt, 26 Enfield Drive, Andover, by Robert F. Noyer, contractor, for proposed bay windows, has been granted as the open space of only 13 inches will be taken at the One Cannon Street house in the village 10 District. The house, located on a lot considered the smallest one on Cannon Street and maybe the smallest lot in the village section of the town on which a house has been constructed, is 24 feet wide and the bay window will take up approximately 15 feet of this width.

The Appeals Board finds that the applicant has cured the failings of the previously filed application and has squarely met the concerns of the Board about construction intrusion, whether by deck or patio, into the remaining small open space area on the highly-visible Water Street side of the house. The existing bay window will be replaced by a new 30 degree angle bay window and an additional new 30 degree bay window.

The application of Myron S. Mazer, 53 Bishop Road, Sharon for a variance for construction of a two level, three-car garage with a second floor loft and a connecting wing, or cabana, to and from an existing house and the proposed garage and loft on property of the petitioner at 7 Hollywoods Road in the Hiller's Cove section, consisting of 6.7 acres, was found by the Board not to require a variance.

Determined by the Board the permitted accessory use under the Zoning By-Laws, the proposed use is not a permitted use that is required to meet floor area requirements. The request was referred to the Building Inspector who is instructed to consider a building permit to the petitioner.

A special permit was granted to Pauline H. Ruel, 6R Dexter Lane, by Edward J. Ruel regarding property at that address for installation of a swimming pool and construction of a pool shed, gazebo and fencing on the property. It was determined the installation and construction will not be more detrimental to the character of the village residence 10 and residence 30. It was also determined that the proposed changes will not adversely affect drainage of water on the property of abutting landowners.

Also granted was the special permit to Robert W. Bates and Florence L. Bates, 14 Pinehurst Avenue for a construction change to a private garage of an existing nonconforming structure on the applicants' property in the Brandt Island section of the town.

The proposed change is the addition of a 12 foot by 17 foot garden and home workshop with a footprint of 204 square feet to be constructed on the easterly side of the existing garage. The owner rescued by Dr. Breen of Woodland Animal Hospital in East Freetown. He kept them until the pups were old enough to be adopted. He was able to find homes for all the pups but one and Samantha, the mother. We at the Animal Rescue League found a home for the last pup, but Samantha still needs a home. She is very friendly and affectionate. She has had all her shots, has been tested for Heartworm, and Dr. Breen has said that he will spay her at no charge.

The Animal Rescue League at 126 MacArthur Drive, New Bedford is open Monday through Saturday, 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Sippican Choral Society

The Sippican Choral Society extends an invitation to membership to anyone who enjoys group singing, sings on key, and can attend regular Monday evening rehearsals.

Rehearsals, which resume on September 14th, are held each Monday from 7:30 to 9:30 in the Fellowship Hall of the First Congregational Church in Marion. Interested singers may join at rehearsals on September 21st and 28th.

The second will open on December 5th in Plymouth with a holiday concert featuring the Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra, followed by a concert on December 6th in the Wickenden Chapel at Tabor Academy. Again this year the Choral Society will participate in the First Night Celebration in New Bedford.

Conductor of the chorus is Judith

SEMINAR: "THE CONSTITUTION: A BICENTENNIAL PERSPECTIVE"

Social Studies coordinator Ronald N. Normand, ORR, was selected with twenty other teachers and graduate students from Massachusetts to attend a two-week seminar on the Constitution.

"The Constitution: A Bicentennial Perspective" was held July 6-17 at the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Library in Boston.

Highlights of the program were a series of distinguished guest speakers with a wide range of expertise discussing various aspects of the Constitution.

Topics centered around the political origins and historical context of the United States Constitution and specific case studies on various amendments.

Both pros and cons on constitutional issues were presented by experts on such issues as pornography, right to bear arms, the right to privacy, the rights of the accused, power to make foreign policy, civil rights, and separation of church and state.

Visiting speakers came from area colleges and law firms such as professors from Harvard and Boston University Law School, MIT, U.Mass., area lawyers and national and state representatives of special interest cerned about intensive land development in southeastern Massachusetts, PCWT now holds land in preservation in the towns of Bourne, Duxbury, Kingston, Marshfield, Middleborough, Plymouth, Rochester and Wareham.

Educational guided tours were presented through the summer with Plymouth resident and PCWT Secretary LeBaron Briggs at Conant Hill in Wareham, and Duxbury resident and PCWT Director Alan Leggatt at Mink Cove in Wareham, and Director Jeffrey Benoit of Plymouth, explaining the Geologic Evolution of Wareham's coast.

Plans are made for a similar tour during the month of October.

Officers of PCWT are volunteers. They are available at no charge to assist landowners by explaining the value and means of preserving their lands. Gifts of land to PCWT help the landowner by providing financial relief through income tax deductions, reduction in estate inheritance taxes, and reduction of real estate taxes.

PCWT maintains an office in Duxbury. Write to Plymouth County Wildlands Trust, 898 State Road, Plymouth, MA. 02360; phone 244-2765 or 826-5050.

TRIBAL TRADITIONS OF KENYA

KENYA, this East African country, the ultimate safari destination, conjures up images of gazelles, giraffes, cheetahs, zebras and other exotic wildlife that populate the treeless savannahs and dusty plains. Yet in this equatorial nation -- where prehistoric man is thought to have emerged -- live 20 million people of which very little is known.

"Tribal Traditions of Kenya", a multimedia exhibit highlighting the infinite cultural variety of this East African country, will offer a glimpse of life quite different from the world most Americans know. This comprehensive display of traditional, decorative, and contemporary art opens at the Boston Museum of Science on September 23 and runs through February 28, 1988.

The focus of the exhibit is the assemblage of artifacts and photographs from the private collection of Irene Sedgwick Briedis. Ms. Briedis, who worked as a photographer in Kenya with British ethnologist Dr. Jean Brown, collected these items in an effort to preserve Kenya's material culture before Western influence was felt. For two years, 1972-1974, Brown and Briedis visited many Kenyan peoples to record traditional ways and collect material culture. Although they visited over 22 tribes they concentrated mostly on the Pokot, a pastoral tribe scattered over the hills and plains of western Kenya and the highlands of Uganda. The colorful Pokot tribe was selected since their day-to-day activities were relatively untouched by the outside world, and whose traditions, some centuries old, were still a way of life.

The Kenyan artifacts on display, mainly household and personal items, include pottery, basketry, woodcarvings, leather goods, metal works, and items of adornment such as headdresses, jewelry, and clothing. Nearly everything owned by members of a Kenyan tribe reveals something about him or her. Shells strung in a certain direction let everyone know that the wearer is the mother of twins. Certain blue beads are reserved for fathers who are waiting with anxious pride as their children complete their initiation. Items are crafted using a wide range of natural materials, including shells and bird feathers, animal skins, and even bottle caps.

In addition to the Pokot, 22 other tribes are represented including the nomadic Turkana, who travel with their camels throughout central Kenya; the Masai, whose striking adornment has made them the subject of numerous National Geographic magazine articles and films; and the Kikuyu, who live near Nairobi and have been influential in Kenyan politics since the nation was led to independence by the Kikuyu goatherd Jomo Kenyatta and 12 others.

To help the visitor visualize the contrasting cultures, "Tribal Traditions of Kenya" will include: photographs, 30 contemporary Kenyan artworks from the collection of the Museum of the National Center of Afro-American Artists, and drawings by Kenyan children. There will be continuous showings of slide and video presentations illustrating the diverse geography, wildlife, people and the contrast between urban and rural Kenyan life.

Visitors will be able to try on authentic tribal jewelry and other tribal clothing, play an African stone game, explore a traditional Pokot hut, attend a contemporary Kenyan play or listen to six of the many languages spoken in Kenya. Special events will include Kenyan cooking demonstrations, authentic African storytelling, music and dance presentations, live animal demonstrations and an authentic Kenyan marketplace where visitors can actually try their hand at bartering.

Polish Heritage Day

"CARDIAC CONNECTIONS"

"Cardiac Connections" a new cardiac support group at Tobey Hospital, will help heart patients and their families deal with the many facets of heart disease.

The group will meet for six sessions on Wednesdays from 7 to 9 p.m. in the hospital cafeteria. The first meeting will be on Wednesday, September 23rd, and sessions will run through October 28th.

"This program will offer both information and support for heart patients and their families", said Ann Marklin, RN, cardiac rehab nurse at Tobey. "Heart patients need to be able to understand what has happened after the crisis is over. Sharing experiences and information is often a helpful part of the recovery process."

The support group is for patients

EIGHT WEEKS
to Better Photography
New Camera Class
Starts September 23rd

Give us eight weeks and we'll give you BETTER PICTURES. When we opened in 1985, we discovered that a lot of people were buying good cameras but continuing to take only "snapshots". Today's cameras are capable of so much more, we decided to hold classes to teach people how to get maximum use of their equipment. We've been doing it every eight weeks ever since. If you'd like to take BETTER pictures, be more comfortable with your camera, learn a few "tricks of the trade", give us eight weeks and we'll make you a better photographer. We'll start with the basics and go on into "flash" photography, night-time-exposures, the use of filters, lenses, and much much more. We meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 - 9:30 (and one Sunday for a field trip) and we'd like to have you with us. Enrollment is limited, so please register now.

Franklinia Festival

AT ASHUMET

The FRANKLINIA FESTIVAL at Massachusetts Adudubon's Ashumet Holly Reservation in East Falmouth will be on Saturday, September 26th, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Festival is named for the rare Franklinia tree which blooms in the fall. The Festival will feature activities for the entire family and will include nature walks, magic show, pony rides, bobbing for apples, face painting and a flea market. Refreshments will be available all day.

A children's nature walk is planned for 10:15 a.m. to see the Franklinia trees at Ashumet. Children may participate in a drawing contest by sketching the Franklinia blossoms. Botanist Ethel Levitz of East Falmouth will lead the walk and all materials will be provided.

Ben Thatcher of Harwich will present a Magic Show at 11:15 and pony rides and face painting can be enjoyed from 10 to 3. At 1:30 there will be a guided nature walk for all ages through the Ashumet reservation and at 2 p.m. children may bob for apples in the Barn.

The Franklinia tree is a member of the tea family and has large white blossoms through September and October. It was discovered in Georgia about 1760 and named for Benjamin Franklin. The trees at Ashumet are the result of seeds and cuttings taken from Georgia by colonial plant explorers.

The Franklinia Festival is sponsored by the Friends of Ashumet and all proceeds are used to maintain the Sanctuary. Admission is $2.00 for adults and free for children under 12 and members of Mass. Audubon. Ashumet Holly Reservation is located off Route 151 and Currier Road in East Falmouth. For further information call 563-6390.

Robert O. Jones will present a tailor-made slide presentation for New Bedford, using local architectural examples. Many historic buildings considered in the talks will be those favorites of the New Bedford Preservation's House and Garden Tours, WHALE's Waterfront Historic District, and many others.

Guest lecturer Robert O. Jones is a native of the Providence, Rhode Island area and has studied the history of art and architecture at Vermont's Middlebury College. In addition to his work on the Rhode Island Historical Preservation Commission, Mr. Jones has written the survey reports on Narragansett Pier and Warwick, Rhode Island. Currently he is co-author of a forthcoming book on the State Houses of Rhode Island.

Admission for each lecture is $4.00 for members of WHALE or the New Bedford Preservation Society; $5.00 for the general public. The lectures start at 8:00 p.m., and seating is limited. Refreshments will be served.

Computer Center will present singer/songwriter DON McLEAN, who became famous overnight with his rock 'n' roll classic, "American Pie", on Saturday, September 26th, at 8:00 p.m. Opening for McLean will be special guest Cheryl Wheeler. Tickets are priced at $17.00, $15.00 and $13.00 with a $2.00 discount for senior citizens and students. For more information on tickets, group packages and season subscriptions call the Zeiterion Box Office at 994-2900. Tickets are also available at all Ticketmaster locations.

Since his "American Pie" exploded onto the charts in 1971, launching an international career, McLean has recorded nearly 30 gold and platinum records distributed throughout countries around the world. Almost as amazing as the song, "American Pie", was McLean's follow-up single, "Vincent (Starry Starry Night)", a stirring tribute to artist Vincent Van Gogh. Some of his other hit songs include "Crying", "Castles in the Air", "Since I Don't Have You", and "It's Just the Sun".

A native of New Rochelle, New York, McLean grew up with the musical inspirations of Buddy Holly, Mississippi John Hurt and Frank Sinatra. In 1969 he recorded his first album, "Tapestry", with Jerry Corbitt which was released in 1970 garnering excellent reviews from music critics. In late 1971 McLean released "American Pie" and became the most successful "new" artist to break that year, and the rest has been musical history.

New Englander singer/songwriter Cheryl Wheeler will open for McLean. Ms. Wheeler has been living in Providence, Rhode Island for a number of years. Her albums include "Newport Songs", "Cheryl Wheeler", and she will be releasing a new album this fall entitled "Half-A-Book". Cheryl has touches of Tom Paxton, Kate Wolf, Gordon Lightfoot and Carole King in her style - both singing and writing.

Don McLean and Cheryl Wheeler will perform a collection of music which will include everything from rock 'n' roll to classic ballads to centuries-old traditional tunes.

The Zeiterion Theatre is located at 684 Purchase Street in historic downtown New Bedford.

AGAWAM RIVER CANOE TRIP

On Saturday, September 26th, the Lloyd Center of Environmental Studies is offering A Canoe Trip on the Agawam River in Wareham as part of its 1987 Canoe Trip program. Participants will canoe the freshwater portion of the Agawam River which consists of: brushy streams, cranberry bogs, pine barrens and reservoirs. At times it will be rough going. The participants will investigate the natural history along the route as well as learning a little bit about Cranberry Bogs. The trip will begin at Mast Road just below Hairway Pond and end on Glen Charlie Pond. Participants will meet at the Lloyd Center at 8:30. The trip will be led by Mary Beth Bishop, senior instructor. In the case of rain the trip will be held on Sunday, September 27th.

Participants should bring a sack lunch, water and appropriate clothing. The cost for this all-day excursion is $10. for Lloyd Center mem-

MARINE MAMMAL EXHIBIT & OPEN HOUSE

"We've been working hard for many weeks to make this possible," said Amy Dyer, Coordinator of the Marine Mammal Exhibit which will open at the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies on October 4th.

"It is a unique exhibit, and it has something for everyone, from adults and scientists to children", she added.

"Marine Mammals of New England Waters" is the second major exhibit to be presented by the Lloyd Center this year. It will include photographs of whales, seals and other marine mammals, display skeletons, artistry, hands-on exhibits and gift items. It will incorporate three floors of the Center's main building, and will be open to the public free of charge.

According to Dr. Alan Lee Hankin, executive director of the Center, "People are beginning to understand the importance of protecting whales and other marine animals. The human response to last year's right whale strandings is a perfect example."

Over 50 whales were stranded on the beaches of Eastham, Mass. last December. Volunteers at that time drove many miles to help return surviving animals to the sea.

The Lloyd Center staff, many of whom are members of the Marine Mammal Stranding Network, decided then on the subject of their next exhibit. The idea is to educate the public about the ecology of whales and other large mammals which live in the ocean.
